

ANDREA GUERRERO

I challenge you to center migrant and immigrant populations by creating a program aimed at educating your community on human rights and promoting human dignity, regardless of immigration status.

ANNE MIDDLETON

I challenge you to inspire your community to habitually use fewer single-use plastics in order to keep trash out of our ocean ecosystems.

MARCUS STROTHER

I challenge you to design a program that engages students, parents, and schools to become champions for connection to intentionally decrease chronic absenteeism and increase academic excellence.

CHRIS BELLAMY, MICHAEL PETERSON, & PRENTICE POWELL

We challenge you to design an innovative approach for helping youth effectively navigate their mental health journey by creating a roadmap that will connect them to resources to support their wellness.

MEGAN BURT & ELENE LOZADA

I challenge you to lead a campaign that raises awareness about the current homelessness prevention efforts in the City of San Diego and reduces the stigma that families might experience by accessing services.